Burgess Champions Policemen's Cause and Gets Increase

Question of Police Protection Brings Heated Discussion--Efficiency of Department Hit by Council

PURCHASE OF WATER WOKS DISCUSSED

The borough fathers met in regular semi-monthly session at the Council Chamber last evening and transacted a great deal of business of interest to the taxpayers. President Pletcher presided and the different wards were represented as follows:

First ward—Pletcher and Hagerty; Second ward, Leitzinger, Thompson and Wrigley; Third ward, Thorn and Walther; Fourth ward, Heck, Overly and Wilson.

The report of Treasurer P. T. Davis showed a balance of $25,436.13 in the borough strong box, while Tax Collector Jacobs reported collections for August of $14,953.55 on duplicate of 1915-16.

That the general health of Clearfield and Clearfielders is away above par was shown by the report of Secretary McCullough of the Board of Health, which stated there were but three cases of contagious diseases at present. They are two whooping cough and one typhoid fever, which we venture to remark is a record for Pennsylvania in a town of our population.

Borough Solicitor Urey reported progress on the matter of the proposed purchase of the plant of the Clearfield Water company and stated that the application for a certificate of convenience, the first step in the negotiations, had been made to the Public Service Commission.

The borough solicitor also presented a request from the Water company for permission to make a copy of the six hundred signers of the petition asking council to take the necessary steps to acquire the water works for the borough and same was accordingly granted.

Bills amounting to $1275 were presented and ordered paid.

The street commissioner was directed to lay a sanitary sewer on Fifth street to remedy an unsanitary condition on said street which had been complained of by the property owners for a long time.

May, 1915, Mrs. Rebecca Miller, of Paradise, as the result of a suit for damages for injuries alleged to have been received in a fall on the alley crossing on Turnpike avenue, between Hannah and McBride streets, received a verdict of $777.14. The case was tried before Judge Baldridge of Blair county, and when the verdict was returned Solicitor Urey made a motion for a new trial. On September 2d last, Judge Baldridge handed down an opinion refusing a new trial. The solicitor made a statement of these facts to council and after some discussion it was decided to appeal the case to the superior court and the borough solicitor was directed to take the necessary steps to do so.

Council evidently proposes to have all defective sidewalks repaired and new walks built where necessary before the winter sets in as it was unanimously decided to instruct the street commissioner to build walks at the expense of the property owner, with the twenty per cent penalty added, in every case where 30 days' notice had been served and disregarded. The street commissioner was also directed to place all alley and street crossings in prope rrepair at once.

The question of the increase in salary which the police force asked for several weeks ago, called for a lengthy and heated discussion. Burgess Callahan championed the policemen's cause and demanded the increase for the men under his control. Every member present took part in the discussion and it appeared to be the opinion of the council generally that more police protection was necessary and that the ordinances against automobile speeding, riding bicycles on the sidewalks, etc., should be enforced strictly. The burgess defended the police force and very generously took the blame for lack of enforcement of the laws complained of upon his own shoulders. He said if it was the wish of council to go after the auto speeders he would do so and promised to co-operate in every movement to increase the efficiency of the force.

Many of the councilmen thought an increase was needed in the number of policemen, Mr. Wrigley of the Second ward, giving it as his opinion that five men were needed to properly police the town, while Messrs. Hagerty, Thorn, Walther and Wilson were of the opinion that an additional or third man was all that was necessary.

It was finally decided to grant an increase to Chief McHenry and Officer Eadie, said increase to date from September 1st and to continue until January 1st. At that time if council if of the opinion that the police service had been improved sufficiently to warrant it the increase was to remain in force, otherwise steps will be taken then to improve the police service and protection.

The finance committee reported the expenditure of about $14,000 thus far on the improvement of Daisy and Nichols streets and recommended the issuing of an additional $15,000 worth of improvement bonds to carry on this work.

69 DAY FAST FATAL

Youngstown, Sept. 7.—(By United ress)—Dr. H. C. Huffman, Poculist died at the City hospital here today after going without food for 69 days. Dr. Huffman is a believer in fasting as a nature cure. Two years ago when he took sick the doctors told him he would not live long so he decided to fast and went without food for 40 days and his health improved remarkably. Last year he went 37 days without eating. This year he fasted 40 days and then tried to eat but was unable to do so. He was taken to the hospital.

Exhibit of Pest Life At Clearfield Fair

J. S. Briggs Here Ready to Serve Farmers in Any Way Possible.

J. S. Brigg of the Bureau of Zoology Department of Agriculture, as announced yesterday, is located here and ready to serve the public. He can be addressed at Clearfield, general delivery or by H. & C. phone No. 246, residence of Mrs. J. Matt LaBar. Mr. Brigg wishes to serve those of Lawrence, Goshen and Bradford townships in order of calls. He will have an exhibit at the Fair consisting of pest life and will be pleased to examine and report as far as possible on any specimen brought to him. Mr. Briggs does not pretend to know everything in this line, but has many years of experience and is in love with his work.

LLOYD W. OGDEN MARRIED

Lloyd W. Ogden, of Clearfield and Miss Margaret M. Wicker, were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Altoona, Tuesday evening, September 5th, by Rev. Clayton Grinnell, pastor of the First aptist church. The groom is a son of John W. Ogden, of Shawville.

BAKERS MEET AGAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The elimination of a five cent loaf of bread for a ten cent loaf, seemed certain today when members of the executive committee of the National Association of Master Bakers met to take action on the proposition. The increased cost of material and labor was given as the cause for the meeting, and the proposed elimination of a five cent loaf. Flour has jumped from $4.50 to $7.25 within five weeks, and wholesale bakers infer that on a five cent loaf of bread they did make a profit of 3-10 and now they lose one cent on each five cent loaf.

Brief Mentionings of Important Happenings of World

DOCTOR ASSAILS DIXON

Pittsburgh, Sept. 7.—(By United Press)—Dr. A. L. Lewis, physician and member of the board of education "will rip the veil" from Dr. Dixon's infantile paralysis quarantine order and alleged "dark" something behind it. Dr. Lewis was asked by Dr. Dixon for facts to support his charges which he will give tomorrow afternoon in an address before the Commerce club and "when I finish", he said, "I will be in position to raise thunder." Dr. Aldoph Koenig, acting Allegheny county physician is upholding Dr. Dixon's order. Dr. Koenig said last night that he is a "man of peace," but when the good name of Dr. Dixon is attacked I will defend it". When Dr. Lewis was asked on what he had to support his charges he replied "I am not at liberty" to immediately discuss the facts that I claim to have.

VICTORIES FOR ALLIES

London, Sept. 7.—(y United Press)—Dispatches are being received from war offices of European capitals which indicate victories in favor of the allies. These include evacuation of the Roumanian city of Turikan in the face of a superior number of the enemy forces. Checking of the Russian march on Hungary. Advance of the troops of Gen. Focxon the northeast front. Checking of the German troops on the Somme by the British.

Many prisoners have been taken and have scored a number of victories in the Somme and Verdun valleys, the French Communique said this morning.

N. Y. STRIKE A FIZZLE

ALLIES DISCUSSING PEACE.

Washington, Sept. 7—Allied diplomats are discussing among themselves negotiations for peace which they will submit to Germany. The fact that military authorities are discussing it it is important from the standpoint that it is reasonable. An authority told the United Press that the allies are not concerned with how long the war will last but how long it will take Germany to surrender.

PATHETIC SCENE IN COURT WHEN WIFE ARRIVES

Grief-Stricken When She Hears Husband Has been Sent To Asylum The Day Before

SUCH SCENES MARK COURT

The regular attendants at the different Quarter Sessions courts in Clearfield county are daily witnesses to pathetic tragedies of greater or less magnitude at each recurring criminal session. One of the most pathetic occurences of recent times was staged Monday morning.

Several months ago Peter Kellerman, a Slavish miner, was brought to jail from Winburne, charged with assault and battery upon his wife and making threats against the community generally. When placed in jail Kellerman became violent and carried on to such an extent that a commission was appointed to inquire into his sanity. The commission declared that the man was mentally unsound, but pending his removal to an asylum apparently regained his health and was allowed to go home.

About two weeks ago he was again arrested for assault and battery and once more placed in jail. He became unusually violent, the doctors were again summoned and Kellerman was declared insane. The County Commissioners thereupon had him removed to Danville State Hospital for the Insane on Saturday last.

Monday morning his wife and son, accompanied by court interpreter Mrs. Annie Kohl, came to Clearfield prepared to take the necessary steps to have Kellerman removed from jail and taken home. Mrs. Kohl was apprised of the true state of affairs and was at loss for a time as to just how to acquaint the poor woman with the sad fate of her husband. When the information was given her, her grief was indeed pitiful to see and she departed for her home heart-broken.

HOME O FMRS. B. REED SCENE OF GOOD TIME

Large Number of Ladies Gather and Enjoy Afternoon.

The beautiful and spacious home and grounds of Mrs. Frank Reed was the scene of another very successful as well as delightful meeting of the Hospital Bridge club yesterday afternoon. Nine tables, eight of bridge and one of five hundred were arranged among the trees and trellis and on the veranda.

A delightful afternoon was spent in playing cards and enjoying the attractive grounds on which is a beautiful "sunken garden" where exquisite pink and white water lilies are blooming. Eleven dollars and eighty cents was realized.

PREPARE FOR THIS.

When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions we see that we are living in a fool's paradise. The temporary prosperity to which our opponents point has been created by the abnormal conditions incident to the war. With the end of the war there will be the new conditions determined by a new Europe. Millions of men in the trenches will then return to work. The energies of each of the now belligerent nations highly trained, will then be turned to production."—Charles E. Hughes.

Jndge Bell Dismisses The Mandamus Proceedings Against Commissioners

Judge Bell handed down an opinion and decree Monday in which he dismissed the proceedings brought by District Attorney Welch at the instigation of Gulich township citizens asking for a mandamus against the county commissioners restraining them from putting in force the recent triennial assessment, because it was unjust, unequal and not made according to law.

In his opinion Judge Bell recites the action of the county commissioners and believes they acted in perfect good faith even though the strict letter of the law, was not complied with by them active as a board of revision of taxes.

The order follows:

"Now, September 4, 1916, writ of mandamus refused, exceptions noted and bill sealed. It is further ordered that the costs of record be paid by the county and that no bills be filed for witnesses on either side.

MANY WOMEN BEFORE JURY ON LIBEL CHARGES

Unusual Neighborhood Feud Disclosed In Court By Mahaffey Residents

UNWILLING WITNESS CALLED

The jury in the Rusnak case after hearing the evidence decided that while Mrs. Rusnak was not a common scold, she was there with the long tongue and should pay the costs in the case.

The next case called was that of Commonwealth vs. John Gall, the charge being larceny. In this case the prosecutor lost a $20 bill and Gall found it. He refused to turn it over to the owner. But three witnesses were called and the jury returned a verdict of guilty in just 63 seconds.

Judging from the character and make up of a large majority of the cases before the court this week one would rightly be led to infer that in Clearfield county, at least, the female of the species is much more contentious than the male. This seems to be particularly true of the Mahaffey region and as a result of this contentiousness a couple of Mahaffey women ailed their personal differences and stirred up the salacious gossip of the neighborhood in a couple of cross suits alleging assault and battery and kindred abuses.

The first case was that of Commonwealth vs. Mrs. Sabbato, the prosecutor being Mrs. Breth, a near neighbor. The details dragged out of the unwilling witnesses, all the physicians and many prominent men and women of Mahaffey, disclosed the usual neighborhood feud between women, the proceedings being somewhat enlivened by the prosecutrix's description of the havoc wrought to her person when the defendant landed on her with both knees. Mrs. Breth said Mrs. Sabbotto came over to her house to take her to task regarding a story she had told about her and the result was a battle royal that would have done credit to old Chest Creek in its palmiest days. She said her assailant hit her in the face and knocked her down; she got up and clinched with her adversary and was sent to the mat again with a right hook to the jaw, accompanied by strenuous hair pulling with the left. While down and out taking the count Mrs. Sabbatto dug her knees into her stomach and accompanied this action with divers and sundry jabs and punches.

In her defense Mrs. Sabatto stated she did slap the defendant over the mouth, but not until her neighbor had politely spat in her face and offered other indignities to her person. The case was given to the jury at 10:30 o'clock and another jury was immediately summoned to hear the evidence in the counter suit wherein the principals were Mrs. Sabbato as prosecutor and Mrs. Amy Johnson, the defendant, the charge being criminal libel. The prosecution is based upon an affidavit made by Mrs. Johnson concerning a story alleged to have been told by the prosecutrix about the other neighborhood women, and which caused all the trouble.

Mike Yuhasz, the Tyler murderer was before the court yesterday afternoon. He was called to the bar and arraigned by District Attorney Welch for the murder of A. E. Benson. W. A. Hagerty, Esq., Yuhasz's attorney, stated that his client was insane and therefore unable to answer to the arraignment. He also presented a statement signed by Drs. S. C. Stewart and John W. Gordon in which the physicians stated that after due and careful examination of the prisoner they were of the opinion that he was insane. Judge Bell said he was not satisfied from his own observations when Yuhasz was before him that the man was mentally unbalanced and thereupon made an order directing Sheriff McCloskey to empanel a jury and have inquiry made as to the sanity of the murderer.

This hearing will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Following are the names of the jurors who will pass upon the matter:

William Jones, miner, Becarin township.

John Rodkey, laborer, Houtzdale borough.

D. C. Burkett, gent, Clearfield, P'a.

John Moore, farmer, Ferguson township.

Joseph R. Reed, Goshen township.

Isaac Markel, laborer, Westover borough.

S. W. Karstetter, baker, Curwensville borough.

John Hurd, farmer, Chest township.

Anthony Boyle, miner, DuBois borough.

J. P. Ellinger, farmer, Brady township.

James B. Dunkle, carpenter, Graham township.

Joll F. Cornelly, merchant, Bigler township.

On account of the absence of a material witness the case of Commonwealth vs. Amy Johnston, who is being prosecuted by Mrs. Frank Sabbatto for libel, was continued until next term.

The case of Commonwealth vs. Mrs. Charlotte Lurick, charged by Mrs. Minnie Strubie with aggravated assault and battery was begun just before noon hour. The defendant in this case is a woman at least 60 years of age. The prosecutrix is at least ten years her junior. It comes to court from the Munson section. The attorneys in the case are District Attorney Welch and A. M. Liveright for the prosecution and Cole & Hartswick and A. Roy Chase for the defense, and a real scrap is bound to result.

MAN IS BEAT UP FOR NOT PAYING BORROWED CASH

Curwensville Man Refuses To Pay Back Small Loan And Is Knocked Unconcious

WALLACETON IS MAN IN JAIL

Another near-murder for Clearfield county is the result of a scrap which occurred at Wallaceton about 9 o'clock Tuesday night, the principals being Clayton Hoover, of Curwensville and Arthur Foster, of Wallaceton, both young men about 22 years of age.

It seems that Hoover at different times had borrowed small sums of money from Foster and when the total reached $1.50 Foster made demand for payment, which was refused. This created bad blood between the men and Tuesday evening Foster called Hoover out of the Vulcan Trading company's store and proceeded to beat him up. He did an effective job and as a result of the beating Hoover was rendered unconscious. He was picked up and taken to his boarding house but as he failed to regain consciousness he was brought to the Clearfield hospital yesterday morning. He has remained in a semi-conscious condition since that time and it is feared that he is very seriously injured.

Sheriff McCloskey and County Detective Jeffries was notified of the affair late last night and arrested Foster at Wallaceton at 4 o'clock this morning and brought him to jail where he will be held to await the result of Hoover's injuries.

MAKE FAIRHAVE AN EDUCATIONAL VALUE, FARMER

T. L. Wall Makes Last Statement To Farmers Before Opening of The Fair

GREAT HISTORICAL EXH

I want to have a last word with farmers and others about the Fair before it opens next week.

Let us make it have more than passing value. That it should have been my aim and hope from the start on January 1st, to the present day. That is why the effort was made to interest Pomona Grange and the subordinate Granges of the county. That is why prizes were offered for the plays by subordinate Granges. That is why allowances are made to the ers for bringing in stock. That is why 12 days were spent traveling over the county among the farmers trying to encourage them to come and bring exhibits, by distributing premium lists and working up interest. That is why every effort is being made to house stock when it comes and to provide places for other farm exhibits.

We have made provision for the best, cleanest entertainment we could get, and we have lots of it provided. Music, sports, racing, baseball, etc. etc. will entertain. But all these things will not have the lasting educational value that will be added when we have the products of the farm and household—the horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, chickens and the potatoes, and other vegetables, the oats, rye, barley and other grains, the apples, pears, peaches, plums, quinces, grapes and berries—in fact everything that a farmer raises. After all one who tills the soil is a farmer whether his land is only a town lot or a 500 acre farm.

Then we must have the honey, cheese, honey, maple syrup, butter, cured meats, canned fruits, vegetables, the bread, pies and cakes from the springhouse and kitchen, and the fancy work—the delight of woman's heart—painting, drawing, fine needle work of all kinds, sprays, rugs, pets, quilts, etc., for ornamental use. All of these must add their permanent educational value, and together constitute the Fair, of which the entertainment features are only the condiments, the spicing—not so very important in themselves but necessary to make complete the Fair.

W. T. Creasy, ex-State master, now secretary of the legislative committee of the Pennsylvania State Grange, will give an address in the park on Grange day, Friday, Sept. 15th at about 10:45 A. M. He will speak from the judges stand if the weather permits, if not, then some other place will be provided. Mr. Creasy will be escorted to the Fair by the Grange and it is hoped that a large number of grangers will make up the party each wearing the badge.

We are sure of the entertainment and know the attendance will be immense. And now, farmers, bring in your exhibits, make your entries promptly and get your articles in place promptly, and so try to make it easy for the secretary and other officers to see that everything run smoothly. The Governor Brumbaugh, Secretary Patton, and the others arrive on the Agricultural Tour of the state Tuesday evening, September 12 and will show them what Clearfield county can produce. Many entries have already been made. Add yours to the list now.

Don't forget the historical exhibit reminders of the early settlers of the county. The tent will be provided.

INSANITY AND CRIME.

The Clearfield County jail on August 20th would have been a prolific source of information for alienists seeking light on the subject of relative connection between insanity and crime. At that time there were seventeen prisoners in the jail and five of them were insane or claimed insanity. Some were hopelessly unbalanced and others were suffering from illusions and hallucinations while possibly one was feigning insanity. Feigning or not, however, he becomes a subject for the alienist.

DAMAGES TO PAY.

Clearfield County stands liable for damages any minute while we house our insane prisoners in the County jail under present conditions. Many of the insane prisoners are confined in ordinary cells where they are at liberty to do personal harm to themselves and the County will be legally responsible for self inflicted harm done the prisoners. This condition should be remedied before some insane prisoner does sufficient harm to himself to warrant a suit for damages by his or her relatives.

PETTY CASES.

Almost every term of court there are a number of petty cases that cost a great deal of money which could best be settled at home but which demand the costly attention of the county officers. Yesterday there was a case from Hawk Run in which a woman was charged with being a "common scold." The unfortunate part of the affair is that both parties to the case were foreigners but good Old Uncle Sam foots the bills to settle their scraps. The one redeeming feature of the case was the fact that an all wise jury returned a verdict of "not guilty but pay the costs."

EDITOR GOOD POLICEMAN.

The American Press gives the following eulogy of the Editor declaring him the greatest policeman the town has.

As a force for the uplifting of morals and the prevention of crime the country newspaper editor stands head and shoulders above the most efficient police force that can be assembled in any community.

Publicity, that one word, explains it all.

Little does the offender care for the fine that is imposed but Oh! How he hates to see his name in print. Usually the offender corners the editor in some remote corner of the office and the following conversation ensues:

"Guess you heard they pulled me last night. I forgot myself and wouldn't have had it happen for the world. It doesn't make so much difference about myself but just for the sake of the wife and children I want to ask a little favor of you," and then he proceeds to inform us that he is a subscriber and in some instances an advertiser and unless we do so and so we can stop his subscription and we will get no more advertising. We lose his subscription for a time and sometimes some advertising but we should worry. They always come back.

THE ASHEN HUE.

Such is the name that properly describes the complexion of the unfortunate who is compelled by law to spend a few weeks in our county jail.

County jails are not used to a great extent any more for the punishment of criminals but rather as a place of detention until time of trial. It naturally follows that many an innocent man has to spend days and weeks or even months in the county jail awaiting trial for crime of which he may not be guilty. The Clearfield County jail is a disgrace to the county. We believe it is properly managed in every respect but the structure is wrong. It is damp and chilly with absolutely no ventilation and no method for taking up the dampness. It is a significant fact that at least two prisoners have died of tuberculosis while confined in our County jail. It is also true that every prisoner who is tubercular or has a weak heart has a veritable hell of it while confined in the county jail. Look over the inmates the next time they enter the Court Room and notice the ashen hue. We know of course that the average man will whiten up when confined but the color of our county jail inmates is quite different from what it should be.

TAKE POLITICAL PARTIES FROM MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 7.—Whether St. Louis' municipal elections shall continue under the present partisan political systems will be decided by the voters when they cast their ballots in the general elections in November.

Mayor Kiel recently signed a bill passed by the Board of Aldermen, St. Louis' legislative body, giving voters a chance to decide a clause in the city charter, which would eliminate all party designation from the primary ballot. Thus a citizen could cast a mixed ballot, which is not possible under the present primary system, under which a straight party ballot must be cast.

This new system provides also for the election of three municipal officers, elected by the city at large—the mayor, comptroller and president of the board of aldermen.

Most Exciting and Complicated Race For Governor Now On In Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 7.—Issues ranging from prohibition to the Leo Frank case are being threshed out in the Georgia gubernatorial campaign, that will end with the primary election on next Tuesday, when representatives in Congress, various state officials and legislative and county tickets also will be named.

The contest for the Democratic nomination for governor is one of the most exciting and complicated that Georgia has known for years. The nomination is considered equivalent to election.

Governor Nat. E. Harris is a candidate to succeed himself. He is now completing his first two-year term and is asking for the customary second term. He is a Confederate veteran and has a large following throughout the state.

Foremost among the candidates opposing Governor Harris is his ancient political enemy, Dr. L. G. Hardman, of Commerce, wealthy planter, physician and banker. Dr. Hardman was defeated by Governor Harris two years ago.

Both Governor Harris and Dr. Hardman had been engaged in a rather colorless campaign for several months when a large quantity of "pep" was injected into the fight by the announcement of the candidacy of Solicitor-General Hugh M. Dorsey, of Atlanta. A fourth entry into the race was made later, but it is generally conceded that the fight for the governorship is between Harris, Hardman and Dorsey.

Dorsey's principal warrant for running for governor is the prominence he gained in the Leo Frank case. As solicitor-general, Dorsey was the prosecutor in the case of young Frank, who was taken from the penitentiary a year ago and lynched by a mob, a few weeks after his sentence of death had been commuted to life imprisonment by Governor John M. Slaton, following a nation-wide protest against his execution.

Mr. Dorsey has not sought to make political capital out of his connection with the Frank case, yet it is inevitable that his chances for the governorship hinge almost wholly upon the issue of that celebrated case. Discerning politicians believe that Dorsey's chances are not only good, but better than any one of the others who are in the race, for the sentiment of the majority of the voters is believed to be still overwhelmingly favorable to the Dorsey view of the Frank case.

While Dorsey's friends are placing great reliance upon the prestige he gained in the Frank case, there are many others who predict that it will prove a "boomerang." Many of them do not like the idea of any one being elected governor "on the Frank case," believing that it might injure Georgia with the public opinion of the nation. Another angle of the Dorsey candidacy is the support given him by Thomas E. Watson, who was a leader of the anti-Frank propaganda. The support of Watson and his followers, however, is believed to entail quite as much opposition.

While the Frank case is looked upon as the spectacular issue of the campaign, particularly as regards the Dorsey campaign, there are many other questions figuring in the fight for the governoship. In the early stages of the campaign the liquor issue promised to come prominently to the front as in previous years, but the putting into effect of the stringent new prohibition laws last May has served to shove this issue into the background in a considerable measure.

One of the important issues is the question of disposing of the Western and Atlantic railroad, which is owned by the State of Georgia and whose terminals are Chattanooga, Tenn., and Atlanta. This road is now under lease to the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, and this lease expires in 1919. A commission of which the governor is a member created by the last session of the legislature for the purpose of releasing, selling or otherwise disposing of this property at the expiration of the present lease. The rental from this lease supplies some $400,000 a year to the state's common schools, and the road itself is a great bulwark of the State's credit. The question of advantageously handling this property when the present lease expires is, therefore, one of tremendous import to the state.

Other issues figuring in the gubernatorial contest are the matter of improving the state's common school system, inaugurating compulsory school attendance, furnishing free school books and the eradication of adult illiteracy. The creation of a state highway commission has also been a subject of considerable campaign oratory.

ON THE SCREEN

Dorothy Gish in "SUSSAN ROCKS THE BOAT" At the Opera House Tomorrow Evening

Susan Johnston, the leading character in "Susan Rocks the Boat," to be shown at the opera house tomorrow evening, is the pampered and petted granddaughter of wealthy people, has every luxury showered upon her, but she is tired of the brainless fops and the empty headed fashion plates of the social set in which she gravitates. By chance, one day she picks up the life of Joan of Arc. This inspires her to do as much for the poor of her day as did the Maid of Orleans for hers.

Accordingly she seeks out Jasper Thornton, a famous criminal lawyer, and persuades him to take her down to the slums where she may begin settlement work.

Down in the underworld she meets Larry O'Neil, a gangster with some refinement, but who is utterly out of sympathy with her uplift movement. An antogonism springs up between them on acount of his contempt for her work.

She leases a house to startt settlement work, just across the street from a notorious dive kept by Cardigan. The latter admires the settlement worker and watches for a chance to press his attentions upon her. Under pretence of aiding her by turning his dive into a law abiding institution, he gets Susan into an upstairs room. Leaving word that no one is to disturb him he enters and locks the door.

In this desperate situation O'Neil comes to her rescue and the out come is a thrilling fight and a sensational finish, with justice dispensed with a free hand.

BANK TO DOUBLE CAPITAL.

New York, Sept. 7.—At a special meeting called for today the stockholders of the Chase National bank are to indorse the proposal of the directors to increase the capitalization from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 and to slice a large melon in dividends. The bank is now the third largest and the richest institution in the metropolis.

HE HAD TO COME TO IT.

He saw the ad. from day to day
And muttered: "I defy it.
Their stuff may be just what they say,
But I'm not going to buy it."
As time wore on he made remarks
It would not do to mention,
For he was mad because that ad.
Was forced on his attention.

But in a week, or two, or three,
He said, "There's no denying
The way that ad. gets hold of me
The stuff may be worth trying."
For just about a fortnight more
He dared mere words to win him,
And then the ad. completely had
Aroused the spender in him.

Next day he drifted in a store
And quietly expended
A few big iron dollars for
The stuff the ad. commended.
He found it filled a long felt need,
Its excellence surprised him,
And now he's glad because the ad.
So deftly hypnotized him.

BASEBALL

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 7.—With Eddie Mahan lost to the team by graduation, and with such stars as Don Wallace, Ernie Soucy, Don Watson, Ken Parson, Dick King and Ross Cowan also gone by the same route. Harvard's 1916 football squad trotted onto the field today for its first fall workout.

Two, perhaps three of the men who started in the game last fall in which the Crimson ran wild against Yale, will be in the lineup this fall. Captain Hal Dadmun, 'guard and Dick Harte, end, were on the field today and Billy Boles who withdrew last winter from college, has sent word that he will be back.

Field Coach Leo H. Leary will be in charge of the squad along with Capt. Dadmun until Percy Haughton, who is president of the Boston National League Baseball club, can leave his duties in Boston and get into action.

Morning and afternoon sessions will be the lot of the candidates for the first two weeks. Captain Dadmun will be in charge in the morning sessions and Coach Leary in the afternoon.

Reggie Brown, Harvard's 'scout coach" who watches the big teams in action and then reporte back to Harvard, will assist Leary early in the season. Brown's work is one of the most important parts of Harvard's coaching system. He dopes out the plays of rival elevens for the scrub teams and then sends them against the varsity in those formations. The varsity squad maps out a defense against these plays in order to become accustomed to them. His work is expected to prove a valuable part of the training for this year's squad.

Derric Parmenter and Don Wallace will help the linemen learn the intricacies of Haughton's style of play; Dick Wigglesworth will have charge if the quarterbacks, and Gil Browne will coach the ends.

Five 'H" men besides Capt. Dadmun and Harte will be available. They are Coolidge, end; Morse Taylor, guard; Horween and Robinson, backs, and Harris a clever center.

Robinson is the man on whom Harvard football fans are pinning their hopes. He has showed marked proficiency in field goal kicking, and with proper coaching he is expected to develop into a kicker fit to fill the shoes of Charles Brickley, the man who sent Harvard victories sailing over goal posts when the backs were unable to plungs their way through the field.

Coly college will be the opening attraction for Cambridge. Harvard will meet this eleven September 23.

JESSE POMEROY'S FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Boston, Mass., Sept. 6.—Jesse Pomeroy, serving a life sentence for murder, today completed his fortieth year in solitary confinement at the State prison in Charlestown. Pomeroy is said to have served solitary longer than any other prisoner in this country and, unless the commitment order is changed, he will have to be kept in that manner until he dies. He began his sentence at the age of 16, after having been convicted of diabolical attacks on several small children. In recent years numerous efforts have been made to secure for him privileges of a "trusty," but all these have been unavailing. Numerous attempts at escape have been made by the notorious prisoner and these, together with his known predilection for taking human life, have influenced the authorities in strictly adhering to the conditions of the original sentence which prescribed solitary imprisonment.

While "solitary imprisonment" is the name given to the punishment Pomeroy is undergoing, it does not mean that he never leaves his cell. He goes out in the yard every day in charge of the guard, and spends an hour there. But that is while the other prisoners are at work in the shops. During the forty years that he has been confined Pomeroy has seldom seen the face of a human being other than those of his keepers and of his aged mother, who died several years ago.

CHANGES IN REPUBLICAN ELECTORS ARE CERTIFIED

Harrisburg, Sept. 6.—(By United Press)—Changes in the Republican electors for the 25th and 28th Pennsylvania districts were certified today to the state department by Charles E. Hughes, as follows: ex-Congressman Arthur L. Bates of Meadville, who withdrew and his place was taken by Walter I. Bates, his brother. Frank Buhl of Sharon withdrew and Bryan Osborne of Franklin has been named to take his place.

Why so many Repair Bills

If there's one thing more than another that sours a man against motoring and makes him wish he'd stuck to the horse-and-buggy, it's having to dig down every week or so to pay for some darned thing that has gotten out o' kelter. Correct lubrication will help to keep your car out of the repair shop and your hand out of your purse.

Atlantic Polarine is "correct lubrication" for eight out of ten cars. Under certain conditions, one of the other three principal motor oils—Atlantic "Light," Atlantic "Medium" or Atlantic "Heavy"—may give better results.

But, in all events, at least one of those four oils is the one best suited to your particular needs. Ask your garageman which.

Atlantic Motor Oils are to correct lubrication what Atlantic Gasoline, the accepted standard, is to correct fuel. In either gas or oil, you can't go wrong on "Atlantic."

Drain your crank-case, wash it out with a little Rayolight Oil, put in a fresh supply of pure, honey-clear Atlantic Motor Oil. You'll have fewer bills for repairs and be glad you took the advice of oil experts.

Read up on this subject. We have published a handsome and comprehensive book about lubrication. It is free. Ask your garage for it. If they cannot supply you drop us a postal and the book will be sent you without charge.

SHOW THE FAT HOW TO EAT AND GROW THIN

New York, Sept. 7.—The craze to reduce which has been so rampant among obese male and female New Yorkers today inspired New York hotels to cater to the seekers after slenderness with especial menus.

One big hotel has employed an expert in dietetics to prepare food that can be eaten with all the recklessness of a stevedore and at the same time not endanger the embonpoint.

The new daily menus are called "Madah Menus" and across the top in quotations is the line "Eat and Grow Thin Suggestions." Here is the luncheon menu:

Cold fish in vinegar; radishes, purée of spinach; broiled veal cutlet; boiled onions; beets, compote of stewed fruit and assorted fresh fruits.

Dinner dishes include broiled chicken giblets with mushrooms, roast spring lamb, chicory, tomato or cucumber salad and fresh fruit compote.

Mrs. Joseph Cooke returned last evening after an absence of several weeks.

Mrs. Isaac Stage, of Clearfield, visited her brothter John H. Norris, Tuesday.

Mrs. Dove Reed and daughter are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Fullerton, Eastvue.

Miss Anna M. Smith, of Philipsburg, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Ammerman, Eastvue.

Charles Stockbridge and wife, who resides at Gary, Indiana, arrived last Monday and will spend several weeks with relatives here and at Grampian.

Rev. Max Lantz, pastor of the M. E. church, who went to Pittsburgh on Monday returned home last evening in time to attend to his church duties.

Mrs. George H. Anger, of Preston, England, a sister of Mrs. H. P. Kirk and Mrs. Charles Sweney, arrived in Curwensville today for a visit with her two sisters.

Your correspondent has been requested to announce that on next sabbath morning the Rev. A. L. Boring, an anti saloon leaguer, will preach in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. William Twigg, Sr., who has been in Philipsburg hospital for several weeks, is reported as convalescing and that she is expected to arrive home in another week.

The artistic window display at the store of Arch Davidson last evening drew the attention of a host of ladies. Ladies hose was the chief articles on exhibition, demonstrating the latest styles.

V. U. Spencer left last Sunday with his son-in-law, Howard Thompson, for a week's auto trip through the eastern counties, visiting the many electric light plants in which Mr. Thompson has financial interests.

Druggist Leib received the other day another invoice of those dandy Maryland peaches from his brother's orchard. He had no trouble in disposing of them at 80 cents per basket, and could have sold half a hundred more baskets, if he had had them on hand.

Mrs. A. K. Draucker, who was seriously ill at her home for several days this week, has so far improved as to be able to be up and about the house again. For almost two days the lady was unconscious and her friends had grave fears that she would not recover.

Miss Lenore Ake was agreeably surprised last evening when a number of her young friends dropped in at her home and took her unawares. She entertained her guests in a most hospitable manner and before their departure treated them to refreshments which were both palatable and to their liking.

Mrs. R. Sweney, accompanied by her milliner, Mrs. G. S. Jones, left for the eastern cities Tuesday where they will inspect and buy a fall and winter stock of millinery. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Helen Snyder, a daughter of V. H. Snyder, and is an expert trimmer in the millinery and hat business.

Joseph Robison, one of Curwensville's best citizens, is serving as a juror this week. For many years Mr. Robison was engaged in the saw mill business in this county, and is an expert in the manufacture of lumber. He is now living a retired life, but the smell of freshly sawed lumber has a fascination for him yet.

Assessor Leech has completed his round of registration of voters in the First ward, and finds that the political declarations to be as follows: Republicans, 199; Democrats, 86; Socialists, 8; Prohibitionists, 6; Washington party, 2; 15 who would not admit their allegiance to any political party. This foots up a voting strength for the first ward of 314.

Miss Jean Smith, a sister of Mrs. M. J. Kelly, gave an afternoon tea yesterday to a number of friends. The gathering was for the hospital benefit, and each guest contributed the sum of ten cents toward the fund. We are informed that a number of these teas are on the tapis for Curwensville and in the end a nice little sum of money will be turned over to the general hospital fund.

Borough council met in adjourned session Tuesday evening with all members present, and the routine of business, was taken up and disposed of. M. W. Caldwell appeared in regard to a drain at his Walnut street property. Council agreed to buy the pipe and complete the sewer provided the petitioner laid same at his own expense. The sewer committee reported that on account of insufficient funds, nothing could be done at present with the Tannery Run drainage. Complaint of W. D. Gates left with sewer committee for further investigation, also matter of sewer taps charged to J.C. Bloom and Abe Robinson. It was ordained that the sidewalk ordinance be enforced when legal notice had been given. Matter of a fire plug on Hartshorn road, near residence of Mrs. Lucy Kelly, held over for a month for further investigation by committee. Report of W. P. Tate, secretary of the board of health, for year ending August 25th, 1916, and also financial report for the same year, showing amount received from borough during the year to be $190.00 and amount expended $189.81, showing balance on hand of $1.47. ONE DIVORCE TO EVERY THREE WEDDINGS IN OHIO

Columbus, O., Sept. 7.—(By United Press)—For every three marriages in Ohio last year, at least one divorce suit was started.

For every six marriages, one divorce was granted by Ohio courts and one marriage annulled.

These figures will be cited in the forthcoming report of Secretary of State Charles Q. Hildebrant, soon to be filed with Governor Willis, it was learned here today.

Ten years ago Ohio had only one divorce to every 12 marriages. Annual reports of the former secretaries show plainly the divorce evil is gaining ground in Ohio married life.

Hildebrant's report shows it is the wife and not the husband, as generally it is supposed, who tires soonest of the marriage bond.

For example: Exactly 299 divorces were granted husbands last year on the ground that their wives had been unfaithful. Only 196 wives were granted divorces from husbands who shirks married responsibility first according to the report. Exactly 3014 divorces were granted to wives last year for absence and neglect," as against 1354 granted husbands for the same reason.

Hildebrant's report shows that June still holds good as the month of marriages and that January is the month thatt cupid languishes.

On the 48,260 marriages reported for the year, 5820 were solemnized in June, while January's record was only 2875.

GREAT BRITAIN PLANS FOR SOCIALIST REFORMS

By Wilbur S. Forrest
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Aug. 16.—(By Mail)—Great Britain is preparing to institute some almost socialistic reforms after the war.

Before Parliament has formally ratified peace terms it became known today, a bill will have been prepared with the sanction of the cabinet, striking a blow at preventable poverty and limiting wealth.

Premier Asquith is a leading advocate of a new social era for Britain, those in close touch with him announce. The entire cabinet is said to share his views.

The Prime Minister's first intimation of the government's plan was made in the House of Commons during the recent discussion of the Paris Economic conference resolutions. Asquith declared the government had in view certain reforms which would distribute the fruits of industry more evenly over the community.

From influential sources it is known that a tentative measure is being discussed giving the state comprehensive control over the distribution of profits, preventing, it is hoped, the accumulation of vastt fortunes in a few hands and guaranteeing to the worker a wage equal to or more than that paid to workmen anywhere.

The radical war measure which allows the government to take 77 per cent. of excess war profits may crystallize into a peace measure to limit profits generally, it is stated.

The Reconstruction committee of the house of commons, of which Premier Asquith is chairman, has charge of the problems of postwar social improvement.

ONE YEAR AGO IN THE WAR.

HOT WATER THE BEST LIVER AND BOWEL MEDICINE

Says Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast Washes Poisons from System

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; other who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if you Feel Backachy or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache; dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink wtich millionss of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The water supply in our Moose Creek Storage Reservoir is about exhausted and until replenished by rain in the water shed of that reservoir we will experience difficulty in serving the higher elevations in the community.

We ask therefore that all water takers stop all wastes and prevent any and all unnecessary running of water to the end that the least interruption in service be had during the continuation of the dry spell of weather.

LEITZINGER BROTHERS

"THE MISLEADING LADY."

This powerful drama of the Essanay film corporation, featuring Henry Walthall and Edna Mayo of "Birth of a Nation" fame, is one of the strongest that this film producing company has featured during its existance. You all remember "The Birth of a Nation" and the grip that the actors took on the public with their thrilling portrayal of the characters of the scenario. They are just as strong in "The Misleading Lady."

In "The Misleading Lady," a story of primitive passions, of cave methods, a young girl, portrayed by Edna Mayo, leads a man, enacted by the incomparable Henry Walthall, to bare his love for her before a company of jesting friends. Enraged, he kidnaps her; takes her to a mountain lodge and chains her to the floor.

He domineers over her; browbeats her, and makes life one continual entirety of misery. This sort of treatment causes her to hate the man but she is awed by his overpowering mastery. The reckless daring of his methods; his brute force employed to attain his ends win her admiration.

One day goaded by the unbroken string of deliberate taunts she fells him to the floor with the telephone. When she realizes what she has done it aruses in her the woman instinct: the mothering love for the helpless comes into play.

This great man-child, stretched apparently lifeless at her feet is hers to take care of and from the realization of her position a great love is born.

Doubtless this is one of the most thrilling dramas that has ever been offered to the theatre going public of Clearfield and will be shown at the Globe today and Friday.

See it at the Globe tonight.

FULTON VS. FLYNN.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 7.—Twin City fight fans are looking forward to seeing a lively setto at the Minneapolis Boxing club tomorrow night, when Fred Fulton, the big Minneapolis battler, and Porky Flynn, the Boston heavyweight, come together for a scheduled ten-round bout. Fulton and Flynn are regarded as two of the best heavies in the American ring today. The meeting tomorrow night will be the second time they have faced one another in the ring. Their first encounter took place in New Orleans last spring. After a gruelling battle of 20 rounds in which honors were fairly even, Fulton was awarded the decision by Referee Tommy Burns.

MINERS DISCUSS WAGE ISSUE.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 7.—The biennial convention of District No. 21, United Mine Workers of America, which embraces in its membership all the coal miners of the state of Washington, met here today to consider an act upon the recent refusal of the mine operators to grant the demands of the union. The miners have asked for a wage increase of 5 per cent and the institution of an eight-hour day. The convention is expected to decide whether the men will strike to enforce their demands, or re-submit the demands in a modified form to the operators.

BLIND BOYS AND GIRLS TO SWIM AND ROLLER-SKATE

Columbus, O., Sept. 7.—Boys at the Ohio Institution for the Blind are to learn to swim and the girls are to take up roller skating. Both these pastimes are new additions to the variety of outdoor sports at the school.

An outdoor swimming pool 25 by 75 feet, ranging in depth from two and one-half to seven feet, is being constructed. A rectangular roller rink for the girls, also under construction, will serve two purposes. In addition to skating facilities, it encloses a play area, 80 by 100 feet, free from all obstructions.

Burgess Champions Policemen's Cause and Gets Increase

Question of Police Protection Brings Heated Discussion--Efficiency of Department Hit by Council

PURCHASE OF WATER WOKS DISCUSSED

The borough fathers met in regular semi-monthly session at the Council Chamber last evening and transacted a great deal of business of interest to the taxpayers. President Pletcher presided and the different wards were represented as follows:

First ward—Pletcher and Hagerty; Second ward, Leitzinger, Thompson and Wrigley; Third ward, Thorn and Walther; Fourth ward, Heck, Overly and Wilson.

The report of Treasurer P. T. Davis showed a balance of $25,436.13 in the borough strong box, while Tax Collector Jacobs reported collections for August of $14,953.55 on duplicate of 1915-16.

That the general health of Clearfield and Clearfielders is away above par was shown by the report of Secretary McCullough of the Board of Health, which stated there were but three cases of contagious diseases at present. They are two whooping cough and one typhoid fever, which we venture to remark is a record for Pennsylvania in a town of our population.

Borough Solicitor Urey reported progress on the matter of the proposed purchase of the plant of the Clearfield Water company and stated that the application for a certificate of convenience, the first step in the negotiations, had been made to the Public Service Commission.

The borough solicitor also presented a request from the Water company for permission to make a copy of the six hundred signers of the petition asking council to take the necessary steps to acquire the water works for borough and same was accordingly granted.

Bills amounting to $1275 were presented and ordered paid.

The street commissioner was directed to lay a sanitary sewer on Fifth street to remedy an unsanitary condition on said street which had been complained of by the property o for a long time.

May, 1915, Mrs. Rebecca Miller, of Paradise, as the result of a suit for damages for injuries alleged to have been received in a fall on the alley crossing on Turnpike avenue, between Hannah and McBride streets, received a verdict of $777.14. The case was tried before Judge Baldridge of Blair county, and when the verdict was returned Solicitor Urey made a motion for a new trial. On September 2d last, Judge Baldridge handed down an opinion refusing a new trial. The solicitor made a statement of these facts to council and after some discussion it was decided to appeal the case to the superior court and the borough solicitor was directed to take the necessary steps to do so.

Council evidently proposes to have all defective sidewalks repaired and new walks built where necessary before the winter sets in as it was unanimously decided to instruct the street commissioner to build walks at the expense of the property owner, with the twenty per cent penalty added, in every case where 30 days' notice had been served and disregarded. The street commissioner was also directed to place all alley and street crossings in prope rrepair at once.

The question of the increase in salary which the police force asked for several weeks ago, called for a lengthy and heated discussion. Burgess Callahan championed the policemen's cause and demanded the increase for the men under his control. Every member present took part in the discussion and it appeared to be the opinion of the council generally that more police protection was necessary and that the ordinances against automobile speeding, riding bicycles on the sidewalks, etc., should be enforced strictly. The burgess defended the police force and very generously took the blame for lack of enforcement of the laws complained of upon his own shoulders. He said if it was the wish of council to go after the auto speeders he would do so and promised to co-operate in every movement to increase the efficiency of the force.

Many of the councilmen thought an increase was needed in the number of policemen, Mr. Wrigley of the Second ward, giving it as his opinion that five men were needed to properly police the town, while Messrs. Hagerty, Thorn, Walther and Wilson were of the opinion that an additional or third man was all that was necessary.

It was finally decided to grant an increase to Chief McHenry and Officer Eadie, said increase to date from September 1st and to continue until January 1st. At that time if council if of the opinion that the police service had been improved sufficiently to warrant it the increase was to remain in force, otherwise steps will be taken then to improve the police service and protection.

The finance committee reported the expenditure of about $14,000 thus far on the improvement of Daisy and Nichols streets and recommended the issuing of an additional $15,000 worth of improvement bonds to carry on this work.

69 DAY FAST FATAL

Youngstown, Sept. 7.—(By United ress)—Dr. H. C. Huffman, Poculist died at the City hospital here today after going without food for 69 days. Dr. Huffman is a believer in fasting as a nature cure. Two years ago when he took sick the doctors told him he would not live long so he decided to fast and went without food for 40 days and his health improved remarkably. Last year he went 37 days without eating. This year he fasted 40 days and then tried to eat but was unable to do so. He was taken to the hospital.

He can be addressed at Clearfield, general delivery or by H. & C. phone No. 246, residence of Mrs. J. Matt LaBar. Mr. Brigg wishes to serve those of Lawrence, Goshen and Bradford townships in order of calls. He will have an exhibit at the Fair consisting of pest life and will be pleased to examine and report as far as possible on any specimen brought to him. Mr. Briggs does not pretend to know everything in this line, but has many years of experience and is in love with his work.

LLOYD W. OGDEN MARRIED

Lloyd W. Ogden, of Clearfield and Miss Margaret M. Wicker, were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Altoona, Tuesday evening, September 5th, by Rev. Clayton Grinnell, pastor of the First aptist church. The groom is a son of John W. Ogden, of Shawville.

BAKERS MEET AGAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The elimination of a five cent loaf of bread for a ten cent loaf, seemed certain today when members of the executive committee of the National Association of Master Bakers met to take action on the proposition. The increased cost of material and labor was given as the cause for the meeting, and the proposed elimination of a five cent loaf. Flour has jumped from $4.50 to $7.25 within five weeks, and wholesale bakers infer that on a five cent loaf of bread they did make a profit of 3-10 and now they lose one cent on each five cent loaf.

DOCTOR ASSAILS DIXON

Pittsburgh, Sept. 7.—(By United Press)—Dr. A. L. Lewis, physician and member of the board of education "will rip the veil" from Dr. Dixon's infantile paralysis quarantine order and alleged "dark" something behind it. Dr. Lewis was asked by Dr. Dixon for facts to support his charges which he will give tomorrow afternoon in an address before the Commerce club and "when I finish", he said, "I will be in position to raise thunder." Dr. Aldoph Koenig, acting Allegheny county physician is upholding Dr. Dixon's order. Dr. Koenig said last night that he is a "man of peace," but when the good name of Dr. Dixon is attacked I will defend it". When Dr. Lewis was asked on what he had to support his charges he replied "I am not at liberty" to immediately discuss the facts that I claim to have.

ALLIES DISCUSSING PEACE.

Washington, Sept. 7—Allied diplomats are discussing among themselves negotiations for peace which they will submit to Germany. The fact that military authorities are discussing it it is important from the standpoint that it is reasonable. An authority told the United Press that the allies are not concerned with how long the war will last but how long it will take Germany to surrender.

PATHETIC SCENE IN COURT WHEN WIFE ARRIVES

Grief-Stricken When She Hears Husband Has been Sent To Asylum The Day Before

SUCH SCENES MARK COURT

The regular attendants at the different Quarter Sessions courts in Clearfield county are daily witnesses to pathetic tragedies of greater or less magnitude at each recurring criminal session. One of the most pathetic occurences of recent times was staged Monday morning.

Several months ago Peter Kellerman, a Slavish miner, was brought to jail from Winburne, charged with assault and battery upon his wife and making threats against the community generally. When placed in jail Kellerman became violent and carried on to such an extent that a commission was appointed to inquire into his sanity. The commission declared that the man was mentally unsound, but pending his removal to an asylum apparently regained his health and was allowed to go home.

About two weeks ago he was again arrested for assault and battery and once more placed in jail. He became unusually violent, the doctors were again summoned and Kellerman was declared insane. The County Commissioners thereupon had him removed to Danville State Hospital for the Insane on Saturday last.

Monday morning his wife and son, accompanied by court interpreter Mrs. Annie Kohl, came to Clearfield prepared to take the necessary steps to have Kellerman removed from jail and taken home. Mrs. Kohl was apprised of the true state of affairs and was at loss for a time as to just how to acquaint the poor woman with the sad fate of her husband. When the information was given her, her grief was indeed pitiful to see and she departed for her home heart-broken.

HOME O FMRS. B. REED SCENE OF GOOD TIME

Large Number of Ladies Gather and Enjoy Afternoon.

The beautiful and spacious home and grounds of Mrs. Frank Reed was the scene of another very successful as well as delightful meeting of the Hospital Bridge club yesterday afternoon. Nine tables, eight of bridge and one of five hundred were arranged among the trees and trellis and on the veranda.

A delightful afternoon was spent in playing cards and enjoying the attractive grounds on which is a beautiful "sunken garden" where exquisite pink and white water lilies are blooming. Eleven dollars and eighty cents was realized.

PREPARE FOR THIS.

When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions we see that we are living in a fool's paradise. The temporary prosperity to which our opponents point has been created by the abnormal conditions incident to the war. With the end of the war there will be the new conditions determined by a new Europe. Millions of men in the trenches will then return to work. The energies of each of the now belligerent nations highly trained, will then be turned to production."—Charles E. Hughes.

Jndge Bell Dismisses The Mandamus Proceedings Against Commissioners

Judge Bell handed down an opinion and decree Monday in which he dismissed the proceedings brought by District Attorney Welch at the instigation of Gulich township citizens asking for a mandamus against the county commissioners restraining them from putting in force the recent triennial assessment, because it was unjust, unequal and not made according to law.

In his opinion Judge Bell recites the action of the county commissioners and believes they acted in perfect good faith even though the strict letter of the law, was not complied with by them active as a board of revision of taxes.

The order follows:

"Now, September 4, 1916, writ of mandamus refused, exceptions noted and bill sealed. It is further ordered that the costs of record be paid by the county and that no bills be filed for witnesses on either side.

SINGLETON BELL, P. J."

MANY WOMEN BEFORE JURY ON LIBEL CHARGES

Unusual Neighborhood Feud Disclosed In Court By Mahaffey Residents

UNWILLING WITNESS CALLED

The jury in the Rusnak case after hearing the evidence decided that while Mrs. Rusnak was not a common scold, she was there with the long tongue and should pay the costs in the case.

The next case called was that of Commonwealth vs. John Gall, the charge being larceny. In this case the prosecutor lost a $20 bill and Gall found it. He refused to turn it over to the owner. But three witnesses were called and the jury returned a verdict of guilty in just 63 seconds.

Judging from the character and make up of a large majority of the cases before the court this week one would rightly be led to infer that in Clearfield county, at least, the female of the species is much more contentious than the male. This seems to be particularly true of the Mahaffey region and as a result of this contentiousness a couple of Mahaffey women ailed their personal differences and stirred up the salacious gossip of the neighborhood in a couple of cross suits alleging assault and battery and kindred abuses.

The first case was that of Commonwealth vs. Mrs. Sabbato, the prosecutor being Mrs. Breth, a near neighbor. The details dragged out of the unwilling witnesses, all the physicians and many prominent men and women of Mahaffey, disclosed the usual neighborhood feud between women, the proceedings being somewhat enlivened by the prosecutrix's description of the havoc wrought to her person when the defendant landed on her with both knees. Mrs. Breth said Mrs. Sabbotto came over to her house to take her to task regarding a story she had told about her and the result was a battle royal that would have done credit to old Chest Creek in its palmiest days. She said her assailant hit her in the face and knocked her down; she got up and clinched with her adversary and was sent to the mat again with a right hook to the jaw, accompanied by strenuous hair pulling with the left. While down and out taking the count Mrs. Sabbatto dug her knees into her stomach and accompanied this action with divers and sundry jabs and punches.

In her defense Mrs. Sabatto stated she did slap the defendant over the mouth, but not until her neighbor had politely spat in her face and offered other indignities to her person. The case was given to the jury at 10:30 o'clock and another jury was immediately summoned to hear the evidence in the counter suit wherein the principals were Mrs. Sabbato as prosecutor and Mrs. Amy Johnson, the defendant, the charge being criminal libel. The prosecution is based upon an affidavit made by Mrs. Johnson concerning a story alleged to have been told by the prosecutrix about the other neighborhood women, and which caused all the trouble.

Mike Yuhasz, the Tyler murderer was before the court yesterday afternoon. He was called to the bar and arraigned by District Attorney Welch for the murder of A. E. Benson. W. A. Hagerty, Esq., Yuhasz's attorney, stated that his client was insane and therefore unable to answer to the arraignment. He also presented a statement signed by Drs. S. C. Stewart and John W. Gordon in which the physicians stated that after due and careful examination of the prisoner they were of the opinion that he was insane. Judge Bell said he was not satisfied from his own observations when Yuhasz was before him that the man was mentally unbalanced and thereupon made an order directing Sheriff McCloskey to empanel a jury and have inquiry made as to the sanity of the murderer.

This hearing will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Following are the names of the jurors who will pass upon the matter:

William Jones, miner, Becarin township.

John Rodkey, laborer, Houtzdale borough.

D. C. Burkett, gent, Clearfield, P'a.

John Moore, farmer, Ferguson township.

Joseph R. Reed, Goshen township.

Isaac Markel, laborer, Westover borough.

S. W. Karstetter, baker, Curwensville borough.

John Hurd, farmer, Chest township.

Anthony Boyle, miner, DuBois borough.

J. P. Ellinger, farmer, Brady township.

James B. Dunkle, carpenter, Graham township.

Joll F. Cornelly, merchant, Bigler township.

On account of the absence of a material witness the case of Commonwealth vs. Amy Johnston, who is being prosecuted by Mrs. Frank Sabbatto for libel, was continued until next term.

The case of Commonwealth vs. Mrs. Charlotte Lurick, charged by Mrs. Minnie Strubie with aggravated assault and battery was begun just before noon hour. The defendant in this case is a woman at least 60 years of age. The prosecutrix is at least ten years her junior. It comes to court from the Munson section. The attorneys in the case are District Attorney Welch and A. M. Liveright for the prosecution and Cole & Hartswick and A. Roy Chase for the defense, and a real scrap is bound to result.

MAN IS BEAT UP FOR NOT PAYING BORROWED CASH

Curwensville Man Refuses To Pay Back Small Loan And Is Knocked Unconcious

WALLACETON IS MAN IN JAIL

Another near-murder for Clearfield county is the result of a scrap which occurred at Wallaceton about 9 o'clock Tuesday night, the principals being Clayton Hoover, of Curwensville and Arthur Foster, of Wallaceton, both young men about 22 years of age.

It seems that Hoover at different times had borrowed small sums of money from Foster and when the total reached $1.50 Foster made demand for payment, which was refused. This created bad blood between the men and Tuesday evening Foster called Hoover out of the Vulcan Trading company's store and proceeded to beat him up. He did an effective job and as a result of the beating Hoover was rendered unconscious. He was picked up and taken to his boarding house but as he failed to regain consciousness he was brought to the Clearfield hospital yesterday morning. He has remained in a semi-conscious condition since that time and it is feared that he is very seriously injured.

Sheriff McCloskey and County Detective Jeffries was notified of the affair late last night and arrested Foster at Wallaceton at 4 o'clock this morning and brought him to jail where he will be held to await the result of Hoover's injuries.

INSANITY AND CRIME.

The Clearfield County jail on August 20th would have been a prolific source of information for alienists seeking light on the subject of relative connection between insanity and crime. At that time there were seventeen prisoners in the jail and five of them were insane or claimed insanity. Some were hopelessly unbalanced and others were suffering from illusions and hallucinations while possibly one was feigning insanity. Feigning or not, however, he becomes a subject for the alienist.

DAMAGES TO PAY.

Clearfield County stands liable for damages any minute while we house our insane prisoners in the County jail under present conditions. Many of the insane prisoners are confined in ordinary cells where they are at liberty to do personal harm to themselves and the County will be legally responsible for self inflicted harm done the prisoners. This condition should be remedied before some insane prisoner does sufficient harm to himself to warrant a suit for damages by his or her relatives.

PETTY CASES.

Almost every term of court there are a number of petty cases that cost a great deal of money which could best be settled at home but which demand the costly attention of the county officers. Yesterday there was a case from Hawk Run in which a woman was charged with being a "common scold." The unfortunate part of the affair is that both parties to the case were foreigners but good Old Uncle Sam foots the bills to settle their scraps. The one redeeming feature of the case was the fact that an all wise jury returned a verdict of "not guilty but pay the costs."

EDITOR GOOD POLICEMAN.

The American Press gives the following eulogy of the Editor declaring him the greatest policeman the town has.

As a force for the uplifting of morals and the prevention of crime the country newspaper editor stands head and shoulders above the most efficient police force that can be assembled in any community.

Publicity, that one word, explains it all.

Little does the offender care for the fine that is imposed but Oh! How he hates to see his name in print. Usually the offender corners the editor in some remote corner of the office and the following conversation ensues:

"Guess you heard they pulled me last night. I forgot myself and wouldn't have had it happen for the world. It doesn't make so much difference about myself but just for the sake of the wife and children I want to ask a little favor of you," and then he proceeds to inform us that he is a subscriber and in some instances an advertiser and unless we do so and so we can stop his subscription and we will get no more advertising. We lose his subscription for a time and sometimes some advertising but we should worry. They always come back.

THE ASHEN HUE.

Such is the name that properly describes the complexion of the unfortunate who is compelled by law to spend a few weeks in our county jail.

County jails are not used to a great extent any more for the punishment of criminals but rather as a place of detention until time of trial. It naturally follows that many an innocent man has to spend days and weeks or even months in the county jail awaiting trial for crime of which he may not be guilty. The Clearfield County jail is a disgrace to the county. We believe it is properly managed in every respect but the structure is wrong. It is damp and chilly with absolutely no ventilation and no method for taking up the dampness. It is a significant fact that at least two prisoners have died of tuberculosis while confined in our County jail. It is also true that every prisoner who is tubercular or has a weak heart has a veritable hell of it while confined in the county jail. Look over the inmates the next time they enter the Court Room and notice the ashen hue. We know of course that the average man will whiten up when confined but the color of our county jail inmates is quite different from what it should be.

TAKE POLITICAL PARTIES FROM MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 7.—Whether St. Louis' municipal elections shall continue under the present partisan political systems will be decided by the voters when they cast their ballots in the general elections in November.

Mayor Kiel recently signed a bill passed by the Board of Aldermen, St. Louis' legislative body, giving voters a chance to decide a clause in the city charter, which would eliminate all party designation from the primary ballot. Thus a citizen could cast a mixed ballot, which is not possible under the present primary system, under which a straight party ballot must be cast.

This new system provides also for the election of three municipal officers, elected by the city at large—the mayor, comptroller and president of the board of aldermen.

Most Exciting and Complicated Race For Governor Now On In Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 7.—Issues ranging from prohibition to the Leo Frank case are being threshed out in the Georgia gubernatorial campaign, that will end with the primary election on next Tuesday, when representatives in Congress, various state officials and legislative and county tickets also will be named.

The contest for the Democratic nomination for governor is one of the most exciting and complicated that Georgia has known for years. The nomination is considered equivalent to election.

Governor Nat. E. Harris is a candidate to succeed himself. He is now completing his first two-year term and is asking for the customary second term. He is a Confederate veteran and has a large following throughout the state.

Foremost among the candidates opposing Governor Harris is his ancient political enemy, Dr. L. G. Hardman, of Commerce, wealthy planter, physician and banker. Dr. Hardman was defeated by Governor Harris two years ago.

Both Governor Harris and Dr. Hardman had been engaged in a rather colorless campaign for several months when a large quantity of "pep" was injected into the fight by the announcement of the candidacy of Solicitor-General Hugh M. Dorsey, of Atlanta. A fourth entry into the race was made later, but it is generally conceded that the fight for the governorship is between Harris, Hardman and Dorsey.

Dorsey's principal warrant for running for governor is the prominence he gained in the Leo Frank case. As solicitor-general, Dorsey was the prosecutor in the case of young Frank, who was taken from the penitentiary a year ago and lynched by a mob, a few weeks after his sentence of death had been commuted to life imprisonment by Governor John M. Slaton, following a nation-wide protest against his execution.

Mr. Dorsey has not sought to make political capital out of his connection with the Frank case, yet it is inevitable that his chances for the governorship hinge almost wholly upon the issue of that celebrated case. Discerning politicians believe that Dorsey's chances are not only good, but better than any one of the others who are in the race, for the sentiment of the majority of the voters is believed to be still overwhelmingly favorable to the Dorsey view of the Frank case.

While Dorsey's friends are placing great reliance upon the prestige he gained in the Frank case, there are many others who predict that it will prove a "boomerang." Many of them do not like the idea of any one being elected governor "on the Frank case," believing that it might injure Georgia with the public opinion of the nation. Another angle of the Dorsey candidacy is the support given him by Thomas E. Watson, who was a leader of the anti-Frank propaganda. The support of Watson and his followers, however, is believed to entail quite as much opposition.

While the Frank case is looked upon as the spectacular issue of the campaign, particularly as regards the Dorsey campaign, there are many other questions figuring in the fight for the governoship. In the early stages of the campaign the liquor issue promised to come prominently to the front as in previous years, but the putting into effect of the stringent new prohibition laws last May has served to shove this issue into the background in a considerable measure.

One of the important issues is the question of disposing of the Western and Atlantic railroad, which is owned by the State of Georgia and whose terminals are Chattanooga, Tenn., and Atlanta. This road is now under lease to the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, and this lease expires in 1919. A commission of which the governor is a member created by the last session of the legislature for the purpose of releasing, selling or otherwise disposing of this property at the expiration of the present lease. The rental from this lease supplies some $400,000 a year to the state's common schools, and the road itself is a great bulwark of the State's credit. The question of advantageously handling this property when the present lease expires is, therefore, one of tremendous import to the state.

Other issues figuring in the gubernatorial contest are the matter of improving the state's common school system, inaugurating compulsory school attendance, furnishing free school books and the eradication of adult illiteracy. The creation of a state highway commission has also been a subject of considerable campaign oratory.

ON THE SCREEN

Dorothy Gish in "SUSSAN ROCKS THE BOAT" At the Opera House Tomorrow Evening

Susan Johnston, the leading character in "Susan Rocks the Boat," to be shown at the opera house tomorrow evening, is the pampered and petted granddaughter of wealthy people, has every luxury showered upon her, but she is tired of the brainless fops and the empty headed fashion plates of the social set in which she gravitates. By chance, one day she picks up the life of Joan of Arc. This inspires her to do as much for the poor of her day as did the Maid of Orleans for hers.

Accordingly she seeks out Jasper Thornton, a famous criminal lawyer, and persuades him to take her down to the slums where she may begin settlement work.

Down in the underworld she meets Larry O'Neil, a gangster with some refinement, but who is utterly out of sympathy with her uplift movement. An antogonism springs up between them on acount of his contempt for her work.

She leases a house to startt settlement work, just across the street from a notorious dive kept by Cardigan. The latter admires the settlement worker and watches for a chance to press his attentions upon her. Under pretence of aiding her by turning his dive into a law abiding institution, he gets Susan into an upstairs room. Leaving word that no one is to disturb him he enters and locks the door.

In this desperate situation O'Neil comes to her rescue and the out come is a thrilling fight and a sensational finish, with justice dispensed with a free hand.

BANK TO DOUBLE CAPITAL.

New York, Sept. 7.—At a special meeting called for today the stockholders of the Chase National bank are to indorse the proposal of the directors to increase the capitalization from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 and to slice a large melon in dividends. The bank is now the third largest and the richest institution in the metropolis.

HE HAD TO COME TO IT.

He saw the ad. from day to day
And muttered: "I defy it.
Their stuff may be just what they say,
But I'm not going to buy it."
As time wore on he made remarks
It would not do to mention,
For he was mad because that ad.
Was forced on his attention.

But in a week, or two, or three,
He said, "There's no denying
The way that ad. gets hold of me
The stuff may be worth trying."
For just about a fortnight more
He dared mere words to win him,
And then the ad. completely had
Aroused the spender in him.

Next day he drifted in a store
And quietly expended
A few big iron dollars for
The stuff the ad. commended.
He found it filled a long felt need,
Its excellence surprised him,
And now he's glad because the ad.
So deftly hypnotized him.

BASEBALL

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 7.—With Eddie Mahan lost to the team by graduation, and with such stars as Don Wallace, Ernie Soucy, Don Watson, Ken Parson, Dick King and Ross Cowan also gone by the same route. Harvard's 1916 football squad trotted onto the field today for its first fall workout.

Two, perhaps three of the men who started in the game last fall in which the Crimson ran wild against Yale, will be in the lineup this fall. Captain Hal Dadmun, 'guard and Dick Harte, end, were on the field today and Billy Boles who withdrew last winter from college, has sent word that he will be back.

Field Coach Leo H. Leary will be in charge of the squad along with Capt. Dadmun until Percy Haughton, who is president of the Boston National League Baseball club, can leave his duties in Boston and get into action.

Morning and afternoon sessions will be the lot of the candidates for the first two weeks. Captain Dadmun will be in charge in the morning sessions and Coach Leary in the afternoon.

Reggie Brown, Harvard's 'scout coach" who watches the big teams in action and then reporte back to Harvard, will assist Leary early in the season. Brown's work is one of the most important parts of Harvard's coaching system. He dopes out the plays of rival elevens for the scrub teams and then sends them against the varsity in those formations. The varsity squad maps out a defense against these plays in order to become accustomed to them. His work is expected to prove a valuable part of the training for this year's squad.

Derric Parmenter and Don Wallace will help the linemen learn the intricacies of Haughton's style of play; Dick Wigglesworth will have charge if the quarterbacks, and Gil Browne will coach the ends.

Five 'H" men besides Capt. Dadmun and Harte will be available. They are Coolidge, end; Morse Taylor, guard; Horween and Robinson, backs, and Harris a clever center.

Robinson is the man on whom Harvard football fans are pinning their hopes. He has showed marked proficiency in field goal kicking, and with proper coaching he is expected to develop into a kicker fit to fill the shoes of Charles Brickley, the man who sent Harvard victories sailing over goal posts when the backs were unable to plungs their way through the field.

Coly college will be the opening attraction for Cambridge. Harvard will meet this eleven September 23.

JESSE POMEROY'S FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Boston, Mass., Sept. 6.—Jesse Pomeroy, serving a life sentence for murder, today completed his fortieth year in solitary confinement at the State prison in Charlestown. Pomeroy is said to have served solitary longer than any other prisoner in this country and, unless the commitment order is changed, he will have to be kept in that manner until he dies. He began his sentence at the age of 16, after having been convicted of diabolical attacks on several small children. In recent years numerous efforts have been made to secure for him privileges of a "trusty," but all these have been unavailing. Numerous attempts at escape have been made by the notorious prisoner and these, together with his known predilection for taking human life, have influenced the authorities in strictly adhering to the conditions of the original sentence which prescribed solitary imprisonment.

While "solitary imprisonment" is the name given to the punishment Pomeroy is undergoing, it does not mean that he never leaves his cell. He goes out in the yard every day in charge of the guard, and spends an hour there. But that is while the other prisoners are at work in the shops. During the forty years that he has been confined Pomeroy has seldom seen the face of a human being other than those of his keepers and of his aged mother, who died several years ago.

CHANGES IN REPUBLICAN ELECTORS ARE CERTIFIED

Harrisburg, Sept. 6.—(By United Press)—Changes in the Republican electors for the 25th and 28th Pennsylvania districts were certified today to the state department by Charles E. Hughes, as follows: ex-Congressman Arthur L. Bates of Meadville, who withdrew and his place was taken by Walter I. Bates, his brother. Frank Buhl of Sharon withdrew and Bryan Osborne of Franklin has been named to take his place.

Why so many Repair Bills

If there's one thing more than another that sours a man against motoring and makes him wish he'd stuck to the horse-and-buggy, it's having to dig down every week or so to pay for some darned thing that has gotten out o' kelter. Correct lubrication will help to keep your car out of the repair shop and your hand out of your purse.

Atlantic Polarine is "correct lubrication" for eight out of ten cars. Under certain conditions, one of the other three principal motor oils—Atlantic "Light," Atlantic "Medium" or Atlantic "Heavy"—may give better results.

But, in all events, at least one of those four oils is the one best suited to your particular needs. Ask your garageman which.

Atlantic Motor Oils are to correct lubrication what Atlantic Gasoline, the accepted standard, is to correct fuel. In either gas or oil, you can't go wrong on "Atlantic."

Drain your crank-case, wash it out with a little Rayolight Oil, put in a fresh supply of pure, honey-clear Atlantic Motor Oil. You'll have fewer bills for repairs and be glad you took the advice of oil experts.

Read up on this subject. We have published a handsome and comprehensive book about lubrication. It is free. Ask your garage for it. If they cannot supply you drop us a postal and the book will be sent you without charge.

SHOW THE FAT HOW TO EAT AND GROW THIN

New York, Sept. 7.—The craze to reduce which has been so rampant among obese male and female New Yorkers today inspired New York hotels to cater to the seekers after slenderness with especial menus.

One big hotel has employed an expert in dietetics to prepare food that can be eaten with all the recklessness of a stevedore and at the same time not endanger the embonpoint.

The new daily menus are called "Madah Menus" and across the top in quotations is the line "Eat and Grow Thin Suggestions." Here is the luncheon menu:

Cold fish in vinegar; radishes, purée of spinach; broiled veal cutlet; boiled onions; beets, compote of stewed fruit and assorted fresh fruits.

Dinner dishes include broiled chicken giblets with mushrooms, roast spring lamb, chicory, tomato or cucumber salad and fresh fruit compote.

The gathering was for the hospital benefit, and each guest contributed the sum of ten cents toward the fund. We are informed that a number of these teas are on the tapis for Curwensville and in the end a nice little sum of money will be turned over to the general hospital fund.

Borough council met in adjourned session Tuesday evening with all members present, and the routine of business, was taken up and disposed of. M. W. Caldwell appeared in regard to a drain at his Walnut street property. Council agreed to buy the pipe and complete the sewer provided the petitioner laid same at his own expense. The sewer committee reported that on account of insufficient funds, nothing could be done at present with the Tannery Run drainage. Complaint of W. D. Gates left with sewer committee for further investigation, also matter of sewer taps charged to J.C. Bloom and Abe Robinson. It was ordained that the sidewalk ordinance be enforced when legal notice had been given. Matter of a fire plug on Hartshorn road, near residence of Mrs. Lucy Kelly, held over for a month for further investigation by committee. Report of W. P. Tate, secretary of the board of health, for year ending August 25th, 1916, and also financial report for the same year, showing amount received from borough during the year to be $190.00 and amount expended $189.81, showing balance on hand of $1.47. Debts due by said board amounting to $47.80 and requested an immediate appropriattion to said board of $75.00 which was granted. Communication received from State Highway department regarding cleaning of gutters and barns along said road No. 408, filed. Street committee reported the pavement on Grampian road completed as far as graded. Street committee also reported the contract awarded Richards & Smith for reflooring Filbert street bridge completed. Order drawn for $265.00 in payment for said contract, including $5.00 for extras. Police reported fines for month of August to be $19.40. Bills rendered and warrants drawn for $910.00. Adjourned.

TO PAY HOMAGE TO MEMORY OF LAFAYETTE

New York, Sept. 6.—Nation wide observance of today as the birthday of Marquis Lafayette, the man who turned France in favor and support of the American revolution, is being made in the United States.

The New York celebration committee speaks of the day as "an opportunity to honor the memory and commeorate the deeds of one of the noblest heroes of the American revolution thanks to whose efforts France's sympathy for a cause of freedom was given effective expression at a crucial period of the struggle for American independence."

At Fall River, Mass., an equestrian state of Major General Lafayette has just been unveiled.

Exercises will be held in New Orleans today at the unveiling of a bust of Lafayette in Lafayette Square.

A memorial service will be held at St. Paul's cathedral in Boston.

In Washington, D. C., there will be a service in commeoration under the auspices of local patriotic societies and there will be similar services in other cities throughout the United States.

ONE DIVORCE TO EVERY THREE WEDDINGS IN OHIO

Columbus, O., Sept. 7.—(By United Press)—For every three marriages in Ohio last year, at least one divorce suit was started.

For every six marriages, one divorce was granted by Ohio courts and one marriage annulled.

These figures will be cited in the forthcoming report of Secretary of State Charles Q. Hildebrant, soon to be filed with Governor Willis, it was learned here today.

Ten years ago Ohio had only one divorce to every 12 marriages. Annual reports of the former secretaries show plainly the divorce evil is gaining ground in Ohio married life.

Hildebrant's report shows it is the wife and not the husband, as generally it is supposed, who tires soonest of the marriage bond.

For example: Exactly 299 divorces were granted husbands last year on the ground that their wives had been unfaithful. Only 196 wives were granted divorces from husbands who shirks married responsibility first according to the report. Exactly 3014 divorces were granted to wives last year for absence and neglect," as against 1354 granted husbands for the same reason.

Hildebrant's report shows that June still holds good as the month of marriages and that January is the month thatt cupid languishes.

On the 48,260 marriages reported for the year, 5820 were solemnized in June, while January's record was only 2875.

GREAT BRITAIN PLANS FOR SOCIALIST REFORMS

By Wilbur S. Forrest
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Aug. 16.—(By Mail)—Great Britain is preparing to institute some almost socialistic reforms after the war.

Before Parliament has formally ratified peace terms it became known today, a bill will have been prepared with the sanction of the cabinet, striking a blow at preventable poverty and limiting wealth.

Premier Asquith is a leading advocate of a new social era for Britain, those in close touch with him announce. The entire cabinet is said to share his views.

The Prime Minister's first intimation of the government's plan was made in the House of Commons during the recent discussion of the Paris Economic conference resolutions. Asquith declared the government had in view certain reforms which would distribute the fruits of industry more evenly over the community.

From influential sources it is known that a tentative measure is being discussed giving the state comprehensive control over the distribution of profits, preventing, it is hoped, the accumulation of vastt fortunes in a few hands and guaranteeing to the worker a wage equal to or more than that paid to workmen anywhere.

The radical war measure which allows the government to take 77 per cent. of excess war profits may crystallize into a peace measure to limit profits generally, it is stated.

The Reconstruction committee of the house of commons, of which Premier Asquith is chairman, has charge of the problems of postwar social improvement.

ONE YEAR AGO IN THE WAR.

September 7, 1915—Emperor Nicholas took the field with his troops; Germans announced loss of submarine U-27; Russian victory near Tarnopol in Galicia, on the Sereth; Seventeen persons killed and many injured in raid by three Zeppelins on English east coast; Bombs from French air squadron started fires in Freiburg, Baden.

HOT WATER THE BEST LIVER AND BOWEL MEDICINE

Says Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast Washes Poisons from System

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; other who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if you Feel Rachachy or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache; dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink wtich millionss of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

LEITZINGER BROTHERS

"THE MISLEADING LADY."

This powerful drama of the Essanay film corporation, featuring Henry Walthall and Edna Mayo of "Birth of a Nation" fame, is one of the strongest that this film producing company has featured during its existance. You all remember "The Birth of a Nation" and the grip that the actors took on the public with their thrilling portrayal of the characters of the scenario. They are just as strong in "The Misleading Lady."

In "The Misleading Lady," a story of primitive passions, of cave methods, a young girl, portrayed by Edna Mayo, leads a man, enacted by the incomparable Henry Walthall, to bare his love for her before a company of jesting friends. Enraged, he kidnaps her; takes her to a mountain lodge and chains her to the floor.

He domineers over her; browbeats her, and makes life one continual entirety of misery. This sort of treatment causes her to hate the man but she is awed by his overpowering mastery. The reckless daring of his methods; his brute force employed to attain his ends win her admiration.

One day goaded by the unbroken string of deliberate taunts she fells him to the floor with the telephone. When she realizes what she has done it aruses in her the woman instinct: the mothering love for the helpless comes into play.

This great man-child, stretched apparently lifeless at her feet is hers to take care of and from the realization of her position a great love is born.

Doubtless this is one of the most thrilling dramas that has ever been offered to the theatre going public of Clearfield and will be shown at the Globe today and Friday.

See it at the Globe tonight.

FULTON VS. FLYNN.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 7.—Twin City fight fans are looking forward to seeing a lively setto at the Minneapolis Boxing club tomorrow night, when Fred Fulton, the big Minneapolis battler, and Porky Flynn, the Boston heavyweight, come together for a scheduled ten-round bout. Fulton and Flynn are regarded as two of the best heavies in the American ring today. The meeting tomorrow night will be the second time they have faced one another in the ring. Their first encounter took place in New Orleans last spring. After a gruelling battle of 20 rounds in which honors were fairly even, Fulton was awarded the decision by Referee Tommy Burns.

MINERS DISCUSS WAGE ISSUE.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 7.—The biennial convention of District No. 21, United Mine Workers of America, which embraces in its membership all the coal miners of the state of Washington, met here today to consider an act upon the recent refusal of the mine operators to grant the demands of the union. The miners have asked for a wage increase of 5 per cent and the institution of an eight-hour day. The convention is expected to decide whether the men will strike to enforce their demands, or re-submit the demands in a modified form to the operators.

BLIND BOYS AND GIRLS TO SWIM AND ROLLER-SKATE

Columbus, O., Sept. 7.—Boys at the Ohio Institution for the Blind are to learn to swim and the girls are to take up roller skating. Both these pastimes are new additions to the variety of outdoor sports at the school.

An outdoor swimming pool 25 by 75 feet, ranging in depth from two and one-half to seven feet, is being constructed. A rectangular roller rink for the girls, also under construction, will serve two purposes. In addition to skating facilities, it encloses a play area, 80 by 100 feet, free from all obstructions.
